

Letters of Persuasion/Avoid Mediation & Arbitration

Dear _____,

I write letters to break stalemates and settle disputes, whether it happened yesterday or years ago.

Estranged from someone you love? — A child, parent or dear friend?

Battling with someone? — A business partner, landlord or boss?

Whatever your conflict, whatever it was that caused the break, seeking peace is something to consider.

Are you ready to cut that high tension wire?

Give yourself the benefit of the doubt.

Call for a complimentary consultation about your options.

Sincerely,

Howard V Sann
